

Volunteer Role Profile

Role	Events Assistant Volunteer
Line Manager	Amy Horton, Community Engagement Officer
Location	Various
Minimum Commitment	2 events per month, including some weekend events

What to expect from this role

This is an opportunity to build your experience and support LUCT to deliver an interesting and engaging events programme for a wide range of audiences.

If you are keen to share your knowledge and inspire visitors of all ages to learn more and engage with nature, this could be the opportunity for you.

What you will be doing

As an Events Assistant Volunteer, you'd be helping events run smoothly by helping to set up and clear away equipment and supporting with group activities.

You will also have the opportunity to lead tours of the site for visiting groups, tailoring tours for a range of different audiences and interests.

The skills you'll need

- A keen interest in wildlife, conservation and the environment
- An enthusiasm for the outdoors and willingness to learn new skills
- A resourceful and flexible approach to be able to communicate with a wide range of audiences.
- The ability to support a wide range of events.

Training

We'll give you the training, guidance and materials to support our events programme.